

“Which Founding Father Are You?” Personality Quiz

For each question, circle the letter which best represents you or the way you think:

- 1) My friends would describe me as...
 - a. loyal
 - b. cautious
 - c. shy
 - d. bold
 - e. charming
 - f. stubborn
 - g. fair

- 2) How I would spend a free day:
 - a. in sport or physical activity
 - b. working in the garden
 - c. reading
 - d. organizing or planning
 - e. craft projects, making things
 - f. writing or journaling
 - g. playing games that work my mind

- 3) Pick the title that best suits your personality?
 - a. The Leader
 - b. The Anchor
 - c. The Thinker
 - d. The Go-Getter
 - e. The Communicator
 - f. The Visionary
 - g. The Negotiator

- 4) In a conversation with a group of people, I tend to...
 - a. offer my opinion, only when asked.
 - b. sit quietly and ask myself “why is everyone in this conversation so dumb”?
 - c. listen and make my own observations.
 - d. steer the conversation in the direction that best suits my needs.
 - e. offer my philosophy on the subject.
 - f. offer my opinion, whether asked for it nor not.
 - g. hold my opinions until I have a good idea where everybody stands.

- 5) When working on a group project, I prefer to...

- a. lead the group.
- b. work in a group that actually has a clue what they're doing.
- c. work on my own...I don't work well with others.
- d. work in a group that I am confident will get me a good grade.
- e. let someone else lead, as long as they know what they're doing.
- f. ensure that the work is distributed evenly and fairly among the members.

6) When confronted with conflict, I tend to...

- a. listen to each side so I can judge fairly.
- b. make things worse by getting agitated.
- c. avoid conflict all together.
- d. take sides with whomever I believe is right.
- e. make everyone feel at ease with humor and wit.
- f. bring everyone together by reminding them of their common cause.
- g. lay down the rules; the rules are always right.

7) Which legacy would you prefer to be remembered for?

- a. Leading your underdog team to victory.
- b. Sticking to your principals when everyone else was wrong.
- c. Creating a great work of music, art, or literature.
- d. Starting a successful and lucrative business.
- e. Creating a new app that makes everyone's life easier.
- f. Helping provide justice for those who have been wronged.
- g. Making peace between two conflicting parties.

Now, count the number of times you circled each letter. Record the score in the table below.

	SCORE
a.
b.
c.
d. e.
f.
g.

The letter you picked the most times represents your Founding Father. Check the following PDF to match your letter to your Founding Father!