

JOHN JAY HOMESTEAD ACTIVITY BOOK

Color the House

John Jay moved to the Homestead in 1801, and when he died, his children and grandchildren lived here. Jay's descendants lived in this house for 150 years! Because they lived here for such a long time, they sometimes had to fix parts of the house that got old. Help the Jays by painting the outside of their house. Be creative!

